RED CROSS HAS YEARLY MEET

M. T. Kelly Retires As Chairman; Thanks All Workers For Assistance

Office changes in El Dorado County Red Cross chapter, rumored several weeks ago, were confirmed at the annual meeting of the chapter, held on Thursday evening at the county welfare department offices.

The meeting marked the retirement of M. T. Kelly as chapter chairman, and Mrs. Edwin P. Smith as chapter secretary, and both were anxious that some statement be published on behalf of the chapter and of themselves expressing their appreciation and thanks to all who have assisted in the activities of the chapter during their administrations.

They were especially anxious that the ladies in various parts of the county who have assisted in the several annual Roll Calls of the chapter be assured that their efforts have been very much appreciated and have helped measurably in the successful carrying on of the chapter's work.

Attorney T. S. Marlor was elected chairman of the chapter to succeed Mr. Kelly and Mrs. Smith was named vice-president. Mrs. Freda Swezey will become corresponding secretary and E. Ogden Hook succeeds Guy E. Wentworth as treasurer.

Paderewski Heart Attack Cancels Concert Tour

Friends Fear 78-Year-Old Wizard Of Piano May Never Again Play In Public; Artist Sails Soon For Home In Switzerland

NEW YORK. (UP)—Friends of Ignace Jan Paderewski feared today that he would never play the piano in public again.

Fifteen thousand persons were in the Madison Square Garden last night, waiting for the old master's fingers. The audience buzzed with anticipatory conversation. The hour for the concert passed. The audience clapped hands impatiently. A night's audience. For several minutes boomed out over the public address system.

"Mr. Paderewski will be forced to postpone the concert because he has been subjected to a slight heart attack," the master was nearing the end of his 18th tour of the United States made over a period of 40 years.

The 78 year old pianist and statesman was taken from his dressing room to his private railroad car in that he would never play the piano in public again.

FEDERAL FRUIT MARKETING PLAN STARTS MAY 29TH

L. W. Veerkamp On Control Committee, Shares Membership On Bartlett Commodity Group With Willard Wilkinson

California growers and shippers of fresh Bartlett pears, plums and Elberta peaches today began preparations for the 1939 shipping season under their new Federal marketing agreement and order which becomes effective May 29, at 12:01 a. m.

Selection of control and commodity committees for the 1939-40 marketing season and final approval of the marketing agreement and order were made late yesterday by the Secretary of Agriculture.

First shipments of Beauty and other varieties of early plums are expected to begin within the next ten days. Bartlett pears normally follow plums about a month later, and Elberta peaches around 6 or 7 weeks later than first plum shipments.

Final approval by the Secretary of Agriculture was based on results of a grower referendum and a shipper sign-up.

For each of the three fruits, the vote was more than 80 per cent favorable, both by number of growers and by a volume of fruit represented. A favorable vote of at least two-thirds of the growers, by number or by volume, voting in the referendum was required before the order could be issued making the agreement applicable to all handlers.

Nearly 2,000 votes were cast by growers of the three fruits, some individual growers voting on more than one fruit. The total vote represented approximately 75 per cent of the Bartlett pears, 59 per cent of the Elberta peaches produced in California during 1937 and 1938 and marketed in fresh form.

Bartlett pear growers cast 745 favorable ballots out of a total of 884. Of the total of 755 plum growers voting, 617 cast affirmative ballots. Elberta peach growers cast 326 favorable ballots out of a total of 389.

Signature of the agreement by handlers completed thus far covers 68 per cent of the Bartlett pears, 58 per cent of the plums and 53 per cent of the Elberta peaches shipped from California in fresh form during 1937 and 1938. Final approval of the program was also contingent upon signature by handlers representing at least 50 per cent of the volume of fruit shipped.

Members and alternates on the control committee of 25 members, and the three commodity committees were selected by the Secretary of Agriculture from nominees chosen by growers and shippers.

Grower members and alternates on the control committee include L. W. Veerkamp, Placerville, member; and Willard R. Wilkinson, Placerville, alternate.

Shipper members on the control committee include I. J. Woodin and Fred W. Rear, of Sacramento.

DRAFT - DODGER RETURNED

Bergdoll Facing Army Trial For Escape Twenty Years Ago

NEW YORK. (UP)—The hands of time turned back 20 years today for Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the draft dodger. He was back where he had started—in military prison awaiting court martial.

His is a pending case that links the era of trans-Atlantic clippers with the days of troop ship sailing to France; the patriotic singing of "Over There" with the convulsions of modern "swing." He had returned from Germany to "face the music," and the army is going to give him the same old "tune," this time for escaping.

He was under sentence of five years for draft dodging when he escaped. That sentence still hangs over him. He is heir to an $800,000 fortune from the estate of his father, a Philadelphia brewer.

He found his solitary cell in Castle William, Fort Jay, on Governor's Island, little changed in 20 years, but his first glimpse of the New York skyline as viewed from the North German liner Bremen yesterday evening made him gasp.

"Why," he stammered, "I never saw anything like . . ."

At that juncture one of the two uniformed army officers who had him in tow gave him a yank, and his expression of wonderment ended abruptly.

A bill is pending in congress to exclude him forever, and the department of labor has ruled that his citizenship is forfeited and he has no right to come back even to surrender, but Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins acceded to the army's demand that he be surrendered for military action rather than civil action by the immigration bureau.

Col. Frank K. Ross and Capt. Edward F. Galvin boarded the Bremen at Quarantine Station and got him.

The principal preliminary work consists of building the board wall through which one of the cyclists will plunge on his powered steed, after the wall has been drenched with gasoline and set afire.

A program of ten events, designed to prove thrilling and entertaining, as well as to demonstrate the complete mastery of their cycles which the club members have, has been planned.

The performers are scheduled to arrive in Placerville from Sacramento about Sunday noon and prior to gathering at the park for the grand entry will form a procession through the business section.

JOHN GARFIELD STAR IN TWO-DAY BILL ON EMPIRE SCREEN

Promoted to stardom in his second motion picture, John Garfield, who made his memorably triumphant debut in "Four Daughters," comes to the screen of the Empire Theatre tonight and Saturday as the star of the vividly dramatic and exciting Warner Bros. picture entitled "They Made Me a Criminal," with the "Dead End" kids as his co-stars. The extent of the quick rise of this young newcomer from the New York stage can be easily gauged by the fact that he is given the starring position in a truly notable cast assembled by Warner Bros. for this production.

In his support are such players as Claude Rains, Gloria Dickson, Ann Sheridan and May Robson, while the lesser roles are handled by Robert Gleckler, John Ridgley, Barbara Pepper, William Davidson, Ward Bond and Robert Strange, among others.

The screen play of "They Made Me a Criminal," which was written by Sig Herzig, was an adaptation of a popular novel by Bertram Millhauser and Beulah Marie Dix, but it would seem to have been tailored to young Garfield's measure.

The next meeting of the sewing club will be on June 14 and the next meeting of the 4-H club will be June 15. This will be held at Bennett Memorial Park, according to a report by Bill Branstetter, club reporter. He notes, also, that the club was to have a weimer roast last Saturday at Lotus which, we suspect, was rained out.

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK. (U-P) — Putting the sports shot here and there: Bill Brown, two-fisted, outspoken New York boxing commissioner, thinks that Tony Galento, with his beer drinking, cigar smoking, scorn of training, and bombastic boasts, is a disgrace to the boxing game and it will be much better off if Joe Louis knocks him quiet on the night of June 28. "Galento," Brown says, "is one of the few boxers I ever know who apparently works at lowering the standards of a fine sport." Galento's hell raising is particularly distressing to Brown, because he has always stoutly maintained that promoters and managers and hangers-on, not fighters were the cause of boxing's ills. It is his theory that a fellow who keeps in good enough condition to fight, and has the courage to stand up and battle with his fists, can't be a bad sort if left alone by chisellers, fakers, and the like. The master minds whose business it is to select an American polo team to defend the international trophy against the British are not satisfied with the play of the 40-goal "dream team" of Phipps, Smith, Hitchcock and Iglehart. So they made a line-up change. But when the serious firing begins the four 10 goalers will be back together, and you can bet on it. . . . even if they lack in efficiency their glamour would make up for it in box office appeal. . . . Whinny Whimsy, Malicious, the 12-year-old thoroughbred retired to green pastures at the close of the winter racing season at Santa Anita, is "writing" letters inviting folk to a horse show (at which he will appear) next month. His stationery bears his name and address and he signs his name in a flowing hand. . . . the idol of California racing fans when he was winning two mile races with great stretch runs. Malicious revealed that he has received 75,000 fan letters and made a motion picture since retiring. Charlie Ruffing's six straight wins are made the more remarkable by the fact that his arm is bothering a great deal, and according to Bill Dickey, he isn't nearly as fast as he was last year. . . . Britania rules the waves, but not for long, because Skipper Harold S. Vanderbilt ships his new 12-meter yacht to England this week to race against all-comers in British waters. Vanderbilt, who has been sailing since Neptune was a minnow, and is on speaking terms with every wave in the Atlantic, will have the skippers hiding in caves to escape lickings. . . . why was Elwood Cooke, and not Wayne Sabin, chosen by the U. S. L. T. A. to accompany Bobby Riggs to the all-England tournament at Wimbledon? . . . I don't care, you know, just curious. . . . want a good two-fight parlay? Okay, here it is—Lou Nova to stop Max Baer and Lou Ambers to do the same thing to Armstrong when they meet for the lightweight title. . . . it'll pay plenty. . . .

Paul Thinks in World Terms

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON 5-28

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 28 is Romans 1:1-17; 3:21-30; 5:1-11; 10:1-15, the Golden Text being Romans 1:16—"I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.")

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

"PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the Gospel of God." So Paul described himself in a letter to the Christians in Rome, a city he was hoping soon to visit. He wanted, he told them, to go to Rome, "for I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established."

"That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me."

He wanted to see the church in Rome well settled, and also the comfort of knowing that he had friends to whom he could pour out his heart, who would understand his work and his many hard and lonely experiences. For Paul must have had many disheartening moments when he felt Christ was far from him and didn't care, and that he was practically alone in a hostile world which couldn't or wouldn't accept the message, and which wanted to put him in prison or to death.

People's feelings were no different in those days than they are today. They suffered from loneliness and fear, even those strong men like Paul and the other disciples, who were firm in their faith.

And it was hard, too, for Paul, who had held an authoritative position in Jerusalem when he was persecuting the Christians, to be the persecuted one. He surely was "called to be an apostle," and was "separated" from those with whom he formerly associated by his acceptance of the Gospel of Christ.

Paul was an inveterate letter writer. His letters to the Christian churches constitute several books of the New Testament. Even when he was in prison he wrote to the members of the various churches, giving them advice and encouragement.

Always he wrote of the Gospel message which was for the Jews and Gentiles alike. "Is He the God of the Jews only?" he asks. "Is He not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also."

Of his hardships and those who professed the faith, he says, "We glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and experience, hope; and that our hope is not in vain."

Later in this series of letters to the Romans, Paul tells of his mission to preach the Gospel for "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved," he says. But how can they call upon Him if they have not heard about Him? Only through preaching, he answers himself. And the preachers must be sent to spread the Gospel. And "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

I think we cannot do better than to memorize the last Bible reference given us for the week, which is Matthew 11:28-30: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

"Take My yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls."

"For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

That promise of Jesus should comfort us, whether we are children or grown-up folk sorely troubled by the problems of the day.

sawmill and will remodel the entire plant, adding some new machinery. A crew of fifteen men will be employed, ten of whom will be local men. Sawing will commence on or about the last of June. Mrs. Carpenter has had a great deal of experience in redwood lumbering.

Frank D. Brown, local mill man and many years a resident here is under treatment for a complicated affliction of the arteries. He will be compelled to eschew all work for six months and possibly longer.

LOTUS NOTES

The past week has been rather cold and the north wind and south wind. The mercury has not passed 82 degrees. This has been a cool month to date as it was in 1937 and 1938. On May 7, 1937, we had a light rain most all day and on May 1, 1938, a rainy day came and this was all of the rain for those months. Last Saturday night the first rain of the present month came and on Sunday we had a very rainy afternoon and evening. It came down in torrents at 11:30 a. m. and again at 3 p. m. Each storm lasted half an hour and had the proportions of cloudbursts. Another heavy downpour came at 3 a. m. winding up with a hail storm at 3:20. There is no doubt but what the hail did considerable damage to the pear crop and also to the summer gardens. We have no back records showing as much rain for the present month as we have had this year, with more coming, perhaps.

Miss Virginia Kamp, of Jackson was calling on one of the residents here the past week.

Our old friend Robert Meder, the wool buyer, of near Rescue, accompanied by his wife, was in our town on Wednesday last looking up parties who have wool to sell. He was enroute to Cool and other places in the county and while here he made it a point to call on Dan Bassi and Henry Bacchi, who have a few head of sheep and some wool.

Mrs. Noreen Peterson is making some nice improvements on her home, building an addition to the house and also putting on a bath room. Her father, from Los Angeles, is doing the work. We learn that Mrs. Dr. George Oviedo, of Coloma, is also making improvements at her home with Joe Hansen and Alex Leonardi as the chief architects and builders.

Clyde Thayer and wife drove to Cool the past week to see about cherry picking on the Arthur J. Kozetzke ranch, where they were employed last year. The foreman, Judge Tony Lemos, told them he thought they would be able to start in within a few days.

Walter Leavitt, the fruit man and manager for the Pacific Fruit Exchange in Placerville, with Dennis Flint was in town Saturday morning looking over some of the pear crop for the coming season.

Parties were in our town Sunday from Oroville looking for a home to rent. They informed your reporter that they intend to operate a dance on Greenwood Creek, some three and one half miles from Lotus on lands owned by Henry Bacchi in the near future and were here looking for a place to live until such time as they can build a home of their own. We are pleased to learn that we will soon have a dredger in operation in this vicinity.

We learn from Mrs. Noreen Peterson, that her husband, A. H. Peterson, was hit by a hit and run driver during the past week while driving in his car at Los Angeles. Both machines were badly damaged and Mr. Peterson's leg was hurt. The speed cops in Los Angeles are investigating the case.
